Invitation to public seminar

Birth Cohort Research
Past, Present, and Future contributions to Public Health

Thursday 1st October 2015, 13:00 – 16:30

The Christian Hansen Auditorium, Center for Sundhed og Samfund (CSS)
Øster Farimagsgade 5, København K

Program

13:00: Welcome
Professor Steffen Loft, Head of Department of Public Health

13:15: From birth cohorts to knowledge for public health
Honorary Doctor at University of Copenhagen Camilla Stoltenberg,
Director general, Norwegian Institute of Public Health, and Professor of Epidemiology, Department of Global Public Health and Primary Care, University of Bergen 14:00: The increasing burden of psychiatric morbidity: how can birth cohorts be of use?

Professor of Epidemiology and Psychiatry Ezra Susser,
Mailman School of Public Health, Columbia University, New York State Psychiatric Institute

14:45: Coffee and networking

15:15: Integrating genetic and other omic data into birth cohort studies
Professor George Davey Smith, Director of the MRC Integrative Epidemiology Unit, University of Bristol.

16:00: ‘The Times They Are A-changin’: About birth cohort diversity and collaboration
Professor Anne-Marie Nybo Andersen, Department of Public Health, University of Copenhagen